

Semler Brossy Grows Partnership: Rami Glatt Promoted to Managing Director

January 31, 2023—

Semler Brossy, a leading independent consulting firm, announced the promotion of Rami Glatt to Managing Director.

Rami has over a decade of executive and board compensation consulting experience. He works across various industries, with a depth of expertise in REITs, Industrials, and private-to-public transitions. Rami also serves as Semler Brossy's lead liaison and technical expert on ISS and Glass Lewis.

“Rami is an outstanding leader who sets a high standard for our work,” said Roger Brossy, Managing Director. “He consistently delivers high-impact work for clients, develops team members, and deepens our insights across the firm. We’re delighted for Rami to join our partnership at Semler Brossy.”

Previously, Rami worked at Mercer Consulting, where he designed and assessed compensation programs. Rami graduated from Yeshiva University, summa cum laude.

“Our clients are fortunate to have access to Rami’s deep experience and expertise,” said Todd Sirras, Managing Director. “Our firm benefits tremendously from his leadership and focus on growing our next generation of leaders.”

Rami can be reached at rglatt@semlerbrossy.com.
